I ensomme stunde

Ole Bull (1810-1880)
Arr: Sølvin Refvik

Andantino

The musical score is presented in four systems, each containing a treble clef staff with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 4/4 time signature. The first system includes a dynamic marking of mp and a Harm instruction. The second system features a 4/6 II time signature change. The third system includes a 5/6 II time signature change and a IV chord marking. The fourth system includes a 1/2 V time signature change, a rit. marking, and a 4/6 IV piu mosso section. The tablature (TAB) is provided on a six-line staff below each system, with fret numbers and bar lines corresponding to the notes in the staff notation. The piece concludes with a diamond symbol in the final measure of the second system.

Ole Bull was a famous norwegian violinist, composer and adventuerer. As a violinist, he was compared to Niccolo Paganini, and he made many consert tours in Europe and USA. Ole Bull was deeply inspired by the norwegian folk music, and he was a caught up by the romantic nationalism arising in Norway after 1814.

You can hear one of his melodic compositions; 'I ensomme stunde' played on YouTube.
